

Friends of Becoming an Outdoors Woman in Maine
Board Member Application

The Friends of Becoming an Outdoors Woman in Maine is a nonprofit organization that works in alignment with the Maine Department of Inland Fisheries and Wildlife to provide charitable assistance to participants at the BOW Introductory Skills Weekend as well as raising awareness of the program throughout Maine. Friends also serves as a steering committee for the Becoming an Outdoors Woman Program in Maine.

The Friends of Becoming an Outdoors Woman in Maine is currently seeking new board members. Potential board members are individuals who are passionate about the Maine outdoors and who would like the opportunity to share their passion with adult women. The board meets 4 to 5 times each year at the IFW Headquarters in Augusta, Maine. Board members often participate at the annual Introductory Skills Weekend at Camp Caribou in Winslow, which is held annually on the third weekend of September. Potential board members are also individuals who are willing to help participate in fundraising efforts for the program. Board members are both male and female.

If you are interested in becoming a board member please complete the form below and return to Emily MacCabe at MDIFW – 284 State St, Augusta, ME 04333 or emily.maccabe@maine.gov
